

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

UPWARDS of twenty years have now elapsed since the Compiler of this Work commenced his present profession as Law Bills of Costs Draughtsman, and Law and General Accountant.

During this long period, he has had the advantage of a very extensive and general experience, having worked for a great many firms having the largest practices in England and Wales.

He has generally found that the profession look to making the Fees instead of keeping correct Memoranda and Books of Accounts, and that thus large arrears of business arise with subsequent loss of money and clients.

The Author has adopted a course which he feels assured will be found of the utmost service to the profession, viz;—giving under suitable heads a number of Precedents of Bills of Costs for delivery to clients, and embracing nearly every possible variety of business.

He has also given, as requested by several professional friends, Hints on Book-keeping, to enable Solicitors to keep their accounts carefully and correctly.

The intention of the Writer has been to render this book suitable, equally to both Country and Town Solicitors; and he believes that with its aid, a young man of a few years' experience will find no difficulty in preparing a Bill of Costs, which, while doing justice to his professional services, may defy the most censorious scrutiny.

Conscious of the value of professional time, every effort has been made to unite brevity with lucidity, both in style and arrangement, and a very full and complete index and table of contents are added, which will enable the practitioner to find instantaneously any point on which he requires information.

The Author, in fixing a moderate sum for the Work, has had in view the double advantage, both to himself and the profession, of the probability of its being found on the table of every practising member thereof.

It is the intention of the Compiler to continue this Work annually, at a moderate price, giving full particulars of every alteration which may be made in the Law as to Costs.

From the numerous subscribers already obtained, he has every confidence that he will receive the further and continued support of the profession.

Any errors in the printing will be found corrected in the errata at the end of the book.

ORDERS OF 30TH JANUARY, 1857.

WHEREAS of late years various alterations have taken place in the practice and procedure of the Court of Chancery, whereby certain of the fees heretofore allowed to the solicitors of the court have ceased, and others of such fees have become inapplicable to the duties which the solicitors have to perform; and it is desirable that a new and revised List of Fees should be made.

Now, upon consideration thereof,

The Right Honourable ROBERT MONSEY, Lord CRANWORTH, Lord High Chancellor of Great Britain, with the advice and assistance of the Right Honorable Sir JAMES LEWIS KNIGHT BRUCE, and the Right Honorable Sir GEORGE JAMES TURNER, the Lords Justices of the Court of Appeal in Chancery, the Honorable the Vice-Chancellor Sir RICHARD TOBIN KINDERSLEY, the Honorable the Vice-Chancellor Sir JOHN STUART, and the Honorable the Vice-Chancellor Sir WILLIAM PAGE WOOD, Doth Order and direct as follows:—

1. The several Orders and parts of Orders following are discharged, so far as regards all costs incurred subsequent to the time when this Order comes into operation ;

The Order of the 26th day of February, 1807, except so much thereof as is mentioned in the Second Schedule hereto.

The Sixth Schedule to the Order of the 26th October, 1842.

The 121st Section of the Order of the 8th May, 1845.

So much of the Thirty-third Section of the Order of the 22nd April, 1850, as relates to the fees to be charged by and allowed to solicitors.

The Fourth Section of the Order of the 7th August, 1852, and the Schedule A. appended to such Order.

The Fifth Section of the Order of the 23rd October, 1852.

2. Solicitors are to be entitled to charge and be allowed the fees set forth in the column headed Lower Scale in the First Schedule hereto, in the several cases following, unless the court shall make order to the contrary ; that is to say,

1st. In all suits by creditors, legatees, (whether specific, pecuniary, or residuary,) devisees (whether in trust or otherwise), heirs at law or next of kin, in which the personal or real, or personal and real estate, for or against or in respect of which, or for an account or administration of which, the demand may be made, shall be under the amount or value of 1000*l*.

2ndly. In all suits for the execution of trusts in which the trust estate or fund shall be under the amount or value of 1000*l*.

3rdly. In all suits for the foreclosure or redemption, or for enforcing any charge or lien, in which the mortgage whereon the suit is founded, or the charge or lien sought to be enforced, shall be under the amount or value of 1000*l*.

4thly. In all suits for specific performance, in which the purchase money or consideration shall be under the amount or value of 1000*l*.

5thly. In all proceedings under the trustees relief acts, or under the trustee acts, or under any of such acts, in which the trust estate or fund to which the proceeding relates shall be under the amount or value of 1000*l*.

6thly. In all proceedings relating to the guardianship or maintenance of infants, in which the property of the infant shall be under the amount or value of 1000*l*.

7thly. In all proceedings by special case, and in all proceedings relating to funds carried to separate accounts, and in all proceedings under any railway or private Act of Parliament, or under any other statutory or summary jurisdiction, and generally in all other cases where the estate or fund to be dealt with, shall be under the amount or value of 1000*l*.

3. In all other cases solicitors are to be entitled to charge and be allowed the fees set forth in the column headed Higher Scale in the First Schedule hereto, unless the court shall make order to the contrary as to all or any of the parties.

4. The fees of court, now collected by means of stamps, are to be reduced and varied as set forth in the Third Schedule hereto.

The fees set forth in the column headed Lower Scale in the Third Schedule hereto are to be paid in all cases in which the Lower Scale of fees is to be charged by and allowed to solicitors, under the provisions of the second section of this Order; and the fees of court set forth in the column headed Higher Scale in the Third Schedule hereto are to be paid in all other cases.

The solicitor or party instituting any proceeding in respect of which he claims to pay the fees of court according to the Lower Scale, is to file with the Clerk of Records and Writs a certificate in the form hereunder set forth, of which certificate the Clerk of Records and Writs is, at the request of any solicitor, or any party acting in person, in the suit or matter, to mark a copy.

On production of such copy of the certificate, the officers of the court are to receive and file all proceedings in the suit or matter bearing stamps according to the Lower Scale.

In any case certified for the Lower Scale of Court fees in which it shall happen that the solicitor shall become entitled to charge and be allowed according to the Higher Scale of solicitors' fees, the deficiency in the fees of Court is to be made good.

In any case in which the fees of Court have been paid upon the Higher Scale, and in which it shall happen that the solicitor shall become entitled to charge and be allowed only according to the Lower Scale of solicitors' fees, the excess of fees of Court so paid may be allowed upon the taxation of costs, if the circumstances of the case shall, in the judgment of the taxing master, justify such allowance.

This Order is to come into operation on the 1st day of February, 1857.

Form of Certificate for paying the Lower Scale of Court Fees.

(Title of Cause or Matter.)

I hereby certify, that to the best of my judgment and belief, the Lower Scale of fees of Court is applicable to this case.
Dated, &c.

Jury Process.

[By the 105th section of the Common Law Procedure Act, 1852, 15 & 16 Vict. c. 76, the Act provides for the summoning of common jurors for the assizes. By the 106th section, the sheriff (other than for London and Middlesex) is to prepare a printed panel of jurors, and to deliver a copy to any party requiring the same, on payment of 1s., which copy is to be annexed to the nisi prius record.

The 107th section makes a similar provision as to the summoning of common jurors in London and Middlesex: and the summoning and striking of special jurors is regulated by the 108th and subsequent sections.]

VIEW.

Fees to the Under-sheriff, Shewers, Jurymen, and Bailiffs upon a View.

The 49th rule of Hilary Term, 1853, provides as follows:—
“Upon an application for a view, there shall be an affidavit stating the place at which the view is to be made, and the distance thereof from the office of the under-sheriff; and the sum to be deposited in the hands of the under-sheriff shall be in £10 in case of a common jury, and £16 in case of a special jury, if such distance do not exceed five miles, and £15 in case of a common jury, and £21 in case of a special jury, if it be above five miles. And, if such sum shall be more than sufficient to pay the expenses of the view, the surplus shall forthwith be returned to the attorney of the party who obtained the view; and, if such sum shall not be sufficient to pay such expenses, the deficiency shall forthwith be paid by such attorney to the under-sheriff. And the under-sheriff shall pay and account for the money so deposited, according to the scale following, that is to say,—

DIRECTIONS TO TAXING MASTERS.

1. BETWEEN the 1st day of September and the 24th day of October in each year, one of the Masters of the Courts of Queen's Bench, Common Pleas, or Exchequer, shall have authority to tax Bills of Costs, take references, and perform other necessary and immediate matters arising in or appertaining to any or either of the said courts, at the office of his own court; and, for such purpose, one of the masters shall attend on certain days in each week, as may be found necessary, and of which due notice shall be affixed in the judges' chambers and in the respective offices of the masters of each court; and such master shall be considered as the vacation master.

2. In order to diminish as much as possible the costs arising from the copying of documents to accompany the briefs of counsel, the masters are to allow only the copying of such documents, or such parts of documents, as they may consider necessary for the instruction of counsel, or for use at the trial.

3. No fee to counsel to be allowed on writs of trial, except on trials before the judge of the Sheriffs' Court of London, or of other Courts of Record where attornies are not allowed to practise; and then one guinea only.

4. The masters shall have discretion in all cases to allow, as between party and party, the fees of counsel or special pleader, for drawing pleadings or other proceedings, whether special or otherwise, and advising.

5. When judgment is signed on a warrant of attorney or cognovit, or on a judge's order authorizing the plaintiff to sign judgment, no declaration to ground judgment shall be necessary or allowed on the taxation of costs.

6. The costs of attendance by counsel or special pleader before a judge at chambers shall in no case be allowed, between party and party, unless the judge shall certify for such allowance.

7. In all actions on contract, other than cases wherein, by reason of the nature of the action, no writ of trial can by law be issued, where the sum recovered or paid into court, and accepted by the plaintiff in satisfaction of his demand, or agreed to be paid on the settlement of the action, shall not exceed twenty pounds (without costs), the plaintiff's costs as against the defendant, shall be taxed according to the lower scale of allowances in the Schedule of Costs hereunto annexed: Provided, that, in case of trial before a judge of one of the superior courts, or judge of assize, if the judge shall certify on the postea that the cause was proper to be tried before him, and not before a sheriff or judge of an inferior court, the costs shall be taxed on the higher scale.

8. Where, in like actions, the sum indorsed on the summons shall be more than twenty pounds, but the plaintiff fails to recover more than that sum, and the judge does not certify as aforesaid, the plaintiff's costs against the defendant whether as between party and party or as between attorney and client, shall be taxed as upon a writ of trial before a judge of a Court of Record where attornies are not allowed to act as advocates, as hereinafter provided for; but the defendant's costs, if any, are to be taxed upon the higher scale: Provided, that, in cases triable before the sheriff or judge of an inferior court, where the judge shall refuse to make an order for such trial, the judge may, if he shall think fit, direct, at the time of such refusal, on what scale the costs of each party shall be taxed; and, in default of such direction, the costs of both parties shall be taxed on the higher scale.

9. At the head of every bill of costs taken to the taxing officer to be taxed, it shall be stated whether the sum recovered, accepted, or agreed to be paid, exceeds the sum of twenty pounds, or not, in the following form:—

Debt above twenty pounds.

Debt twenty pounds or under.

General Allowance for Plaintiffs and Defendants; and in Cases under 20l., as well between Attorney and Client, as between Party and Party.

ENDORSEMENT OF WRIT OF SUMMONS.

The 1st rule of Hilary Term, 1853, provides as follows :—

“When a writ of summons is endorsed in the special form mentioned in s. 27 of the Common Law Procedure Act, 1852, the following are the amounts which may be endorsed by the plaintiff's attorney or agent upon the writ, for costs, and to include mileage :—

*In Actions above 20*l.

In town causes, 3*l.* 8*s.* 0*d.*

In country or agency cases (including mileage), 4*l.* 0*s.* 0*d.*

*In Actions under 20*l.

In town causes, 2*l.* 14*s.* 0*d.*

In country or agency cases (including mileage), 3*l.* 2*s.* 0*d.*

“Where the plaintiff's attorney, at the time of issuing the writ, claims more than the sums fixed as above, the endorsement on the writ of summons in respect of costs shall be as follows,— ‘Such sum as shall be allowed on taxation for costs.’ And, in case the plaintiff shall be found not entitled to more costs than such fixed sums, or if more than one-sixth shall be disallowed, the plaintiff's attorney shall pay the costs of taxation. So, if the attorney has endorsed on the writ one of the fixed sums for the costs of judgment, and claims more costs on signing judgment, and on taxation shall be found not entitled to more than such sum, or if more than one-sixth be taken off on taxation, the plaintiff's attorney shall in like manner pay the costs of taxation."

Sessional or Solicitation Fee, for Soliciting the Bill for the Promoters by the Parliamentary Agent.

When the bill has received the royal assent . . . . . 26 5 0

[In case the bill should not receive the royal assent, a sessional fee of two guineas and upwards may be charged, according to the class of bill, and the progress made through its several stages.]

The sessional fee will include all attendances not otherwise specially mentioned in this list, at the following offices of the House of Commons, viz.—

Chairman of the committee of ways and means :—

To deposit bills, clauses, and amendments, and afterwards obtain the same, and all other formal attendances.

Mr. Speaker's counsel :—

To deposit prints of bills, and afterwards to obtain the same, and all other formal attendances.

Mr. Speaker's secretary :—

All formal attendances to leave amended bills and clauses, and to obtain the same agreed to.

Private bill office :—

To give notices.

To examine register and other books.

To deposit prints of bills, amended bills, and copies of proposed amendments.

Fee office :—

To pay fees, and all other attendances in reference thereto, and with copies of bills, when required.

Journal office :—

To order and obtain copies of reports, petitions, and other papers, except in the case of opposed bills, when 7s. 6d. may be charged for attending to bespeak and afterwards to obtain the same.

Committee clerks' office :—

All ordinary attendances with reference to the progress of the bill.

Door-keepers :—

To deliver prints of bills, &c.

Offices for the sale of Parliamentary papers :—

To obtain printed reports and other papers required for use in the progress of the bill.

The sessional fee will also cover all ordinary communications of the agent with the solicitor, with reference to the progress of the bill through its various stages, when no professional advice or instruction is given.

When a Parliamentary agent is employed, the solicitor will not be entitled to the sessional fee, but may charge from two guineas to ten guineas, according to circumstances, in respect to his ordinary communications with such agent, with reference to the progress of the bill through its various stages, when no professional advice or instruction is given.

When no other Parliamentary agent is employed, the solicitor acting in that capacity will be entitled to the sessional fee.

In cases of opposition to bills, no sessional fee is allowed.

EXTRACT FROM ACT 22 &amp; 23 VICTORIA, CAP. 36.

Whereas certain stamp duties contained in the schedule to the Act passed in the fifty-fifth year of the reign of King George the Third, chapter one hundred and eighty-four, are now payable upon probates of wills and letters of administration in England and Ireland, and upon inventories to be exhibited and recorded in any commissary court in Scotland, and are imposed by certain graduated scales according to the value of the estate and effects for or in respect of which such probate or letters of administration are granted, or whereof such inventory is exhibited or recorded, but such graduated scales of duty cease where such value amounts to one million pounds and upwards; and it is expedient to extend and continue such graduation of duty as hereinafter mentioned: Be it enacted, that in lieu of the said stamp duties upon such probates and letters of administration and inventories respectively, where such value as aforesaid shall amount to one million pounds or upwards, there shall be charged and paid the following duties respectively; that is to say,

For every one hundred thousand pounds of the whole value of such estate and effects, and any fractional part of one hundred thousand pounds,

Where the deceased shall have left any will or testament or testamentary disposition of his personal or moveable estate and effects, the stamp duty of one thousand five hundred pounds.

And where the deceased shall not have left any such will or testament or testamentary disposition, the stamp duty of two thousand two hundred and fifty pounds.

1. The first part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the general principles of the theory of the structure of the human mind. It is shown that the mind is a complex system of interacting elements, and that the structure of the mind is determined by the interactions between these elements. The second part of the paper is devoted to a discussion of the specific principles of the theory of the structure of the human mind. It is shown that the structure of the mind is determined by the interactions between the elements of the mind, and that the structure of the mind is determined by the interactions between the elements of the mind.

| Attending counsel with brief . . . . .   | 0 | 6  | 8  |
| Paid his fee and clerk . . . . .   | 3 | 5  | 6  |
| April 1st. Attending court this day when prisonerstried and found guilty, and sentenced to penalservitude, Taylor for 6 years and Smith for 4years. Afterwards attending obtaining orderon treasurer for payment of costs of witnessesand allowance for brief and counsel, &c. . . . . | 2 | 2  | 0  |
| Paid fees for indictment, &c. . . . .  | 1 | 19 | 0  |
| Rail hire and expenses of self (from home 2 days)  | 1 | 15 | 0  |
| Letters and other attendances, &c. . . . .   | 0 | 5  | 0  |

Any ordinary costs on a criminal prosecution for felony or misdemeanor triable at the assizes or quarter sessions can be easily drawn from the foregoing precedent.

An allowance is generally made for brief and counsel's fee in the order on treasurer of the county for payment of expenses of prosecutors and witnesses, and if this amount is received by the attorney, credit should be given for it at the foot of the bill.

HINTS ON BOOK-KEEPING.

AS TO COSTS.

I have been requested by several professional friends to annex to this work, a few remarks or hints on Book-keeping by Solicitors, leaving to a future edition the insertion of a complete set of books. It would, however, be foreign to the object I have had in view, to lay down an elaborate set of rules for that purpose, and there is the less necessity for such a course (as to costs), because twenty years' experience as an accountant, has convinced me that the difficulties which so frequently occur in preparing Bills of Costs, do not arise so much from the absence of a correct theoretical system of accounts in solicitors' offices, as from inattention and carelessness in carrying that system into practical operation. These brief remarks or hints, therefore, are framed exclusively with reference to the complications which arise from that cause.

1. No solicitor should omit to keep a Name Book, in which the names of all persons calling should be daily and correctly entered; and if the business is small, I would advise that each person employed should be required to count his work daily, and to enter it under the name of each client. This would save a great deal of time and trouble, because in posting up from the Diaries, the Name Book could be referred to.

2. On whatever business a client is seen, the material points and facts which have been elicited by a conference with him should be entered immediately, and as fully as possible in a diary. Similar diaries should also be kept by the managing clerks in each department; and if, from the pressure of engagements or from any other cause, these entries cannot be made immediately, they ought not, at all events, to be postponed beyond the day on which the conference takes place, or the business is transacted; for in that case other business will drive some important fact from the mind, and whatever the powers of memory may be, circumstances, and even impressions which ought to be recorded, will be inevitably omitted. Where books have been neglected or kept in an imperfect manner, I have been enabled from occasional full entries of this kind, to unravel an involved series of transactions, and to trace out particulars which otherwise would have escaped attention. I particularly recommend that all papers be properly endorsed and put away in pigeon holes, marked alphabetically.

3. The entries made in the solicitor's diary and in those of the managing clerk's, should, with all convenient speed, be posted in a journal under separate heads, and where the client's business is heavy, this will be found convenient.

It will eventually save time to make out Bills of Costs on draft paper from the journal, and deposit them in pigeon holes marked alphabetically for that purpose. If an agent be employed, space should be left for entering his charges, as soon as they are received. With a journal thus kept, and regularly written up, a solicitor will experience no difficulty in preparing his Bills of Costs. I would also recommend that a book be kept alphabetically for posting up all monies paid on account of clients for work done, as the bill clerk could then refer to it, and would there find the lengths of deeds (if sent to a stationer), and every information relating to disbursements. See form, page 381.

4. Letter books, distinguished by separate and appropriate headings, and correctly indexed, including in the index dates as well as names, should be invariably kept, in which copies of all letters on business should be accurately copied. If a client's business is large, a separate letter book may be kept for him.

These books ought to be indexed daily, so that the solicitor or his managing clerk may refer to any letter without delay.

5. In all offices in which a large business is transacted, a separate managing clerk ought to be kept for Chancery, Conveyancing, Common Law, &c., &c., and each managing clerk ought to have uncontrolled authority, except by the solicitor himself, over his own department. By this division of labour, greater skill, and a greater facility for the quick despatch of business will be acquired than by any other system, and if care be taken to select an intelligent and trustworthy person, he will be gratified by the confidence reposed in him, and take a pride in discharging the duties of his office in the most efficient manner. By a contrary plan, and by allowing a clerk, not familiar with the business to be transacted, to interfere with the department over which another usually presides, not only is business impeded and dissatisfaction created, but great losses have been frequently occasioned.

6. Bills of Costs ought to be made up to a certain month in each year and sent to the clients, and those not sent should be averaged, and the amount ought to be carried to a suspension account. An alphabetical list of all Bills of Costs delivered ought to be kept, with the date of sending them to the client, and the date of all further applications for payment. This list ought to be revised and fair copied every month. A list ought to be kept of those carried to the suspension account, and revised as each bill is finished and sent out. These two lists ought to be put before the principals, at least, once in every month. I have known a large amount of loss occur in several offices, when this was not done. It would be better to make out all Bills of Costs separately, under the head of Chancery, Conveyancing, Common Law, and General Business.

7. The diaries of the managing clerks, ought, in large offices, to be inspected by the solicitor daily, and in the country a day ought to be set apart for that purpose. By the neglect of this precaution I have known a solicitor lose a large amount every year through a managing clerk's carelessness, his diary having been frequently in arrear upwards of three months. I would also recommend that diaries be made in the form set forth at page 377, leaving plenty of room for "Nature of Business." About two quires of foolscap stitched lengthwise would be sufficient at a time, and the whole should be bound at the end of every year.

8. I would venture to recommend that remunerative and even liberal salaries be paid to the managing and other clerks. It has been said that no business is well done that is not paid for; but perhaps it would be more correct to say that no business is well done that is not adequately and sufficiently paid for. Except for the purpose of completing entries and other formal matters, managing clerks ought also, as a general rule, to be allowed to leave the office at the same time as the solicitor himself. Little work is done after the principal has retired, and to compel the clerks to remain till a later hour, creates a feeling of dissatisfaction, without promoting the despatch of business. Finally; I hope the profession will acquit me of presumption in thus supporting the interests of a class of men whose value I have proved, and who are amongst the most intelligent.

AS TO ACCOUNTS GENERALLY.

Every solicitor ought to keep a petty cash-book, and enter in it all disbursements for business done, on account of clients, which would afterwards be included in the Bill of Costs. Clerk's salaries, rent, office expenses generally, and payments made by London solicitors to country agents, and also payments made to London agents by country solicitors, should be entered in the petty cash-book.

All payments made for clients for business done, and entered in the petty cash-book, ought to be posted from such book under the name of each client, in a separate book alphabetically prepared for that purpose. See page 381. Should a law stationer be employed, he should keep one book and also give a copy to the solicitor, and his account ought also to be entered in the petty cash-book, and then posted to the book, as per-form, shewn at page 381. When the petty cash-book is thus regularly posted, the bill clerk will have very little difficulty in making out correct Bills of Costs, because the items of expenditure will lead to matters, which will enable him generally to arrive at right conclusions. The petty cash-book ought to be balanced every week, and when receipts for disbursements can be taken, these vouchers ought to be produced by the clerk keeping such book. It is very necessary that this book should be checked with great care, as I have known instances of payments being charged several times over during the year, for one and the same matter. Very few solicitors check their petty cash-books, therefore if the clerk keeping such book becomes dishonest, it generally commences through the carelessness of the employers, and many young men through this negligence have been ruined.

I would particularly advise that boys should not be entrusted with the petty cash-book, it being a mistaken idea that because a boy can be got for a trifling sum per week it is the cheapest. It is far better at all times to employ sober and respectable men. I knew a case where a boy kept the petty cash-book, and actually embezzled upwards of £1000 in two years. On another occasion, an investigation of some accounts belonging to a large firm, showed that in the course of fourteen years they lost about £1000 per annum, but of this I was not at all astonished when I was informed they paid their cashier the large salary of about 23s. per week. The plunder in this case was of the most barefaced description, and such as I had in twenty years' experience never witnessed before. As an instance of keeping the accounts, the balance in the cash-book from the previous day was sometimes forgotten to be carried to the next day's account, this balance amounted occasionally to upwards of £50.

A second column was made in the cash-book, and a long list of items was entered in it by the traveller as he came from his journey; these items were added up at three different times, or stops, always making one of the totals, £10, £20, £30, and sometimes £50 wrong. Another illustration, and I have done. When a customer paid £100 on account, the amount would perhaps include a £30 bill, the total would be entered in the day-book as £100, and posted from thence to the ledger; but in the cash-book the £30 bill never appeared, and it was not known where many of these little bills went to. A small ledger headed "Agent's Ledger" ought also to be kept, in which all remittances made to agents in the country ought to be posted up from the petty cash book, and the same kind of book ought to be kept by country solicitors.

A general daily cash-book ought to be kept, in which all payments made for clients not intended to be included in any Bills of Costs of all monies received from and on behalf of clients, ought to be entered and then posted to the general cash ledger; these ought to be posted up at least every month; this cash-book ought to be strictly balanced and audited.

A separate cash-book ought also to be kept, in which Bills of Costs received should be entered under separate heads, viz: Chancery, Common Law, Coveyancing, and General Business; the total should be carried to the daily cash-book every week. See form of this book at page 382.

A separate ledger, independent of the general cash ledger, ought to be kept, headed "Law Ledger," and every Bill of Costs ought to be debited to each client, and the total amount ought to be carried from such ledger to the general cash ledger, on a settlement of accounts.

Should the Bills of Costs amount to more than the cash the solicitor has received from his client, then enter the amount in the law cash-book as received, and also enter the amount in the daily cash-book as a payment on account of such monies received from and on behalf of clients; the amount will then get posted to the law ledger on account of costs, and the payment or transfer will get posted to the general cash ledger, and thus, each account can be properly balanced.

It being my intention to continue this work annually at a moderate price, I trust the profession will afford me their assistance, because it will be my entire study to give such precedents in Bills of Costs and forms of book-keeping as will materially assist them.

PROSPECTUS.

THE TALYSARN ESTATE was purchased in 1827 by the celebrated goldsmiths, Messrs. Rundell, Bridge, & Co., who expended thereon, in Machinery and the partial development of the Quarries, upwards of £50,000. From that eminent firm the late Proprietor purchased the entirety, and has since expended several thousand pounds in restoring the Quarries to their present profitable condition.

The property purchased by the Company comprises upwards of seventy acres of Freehold Land, the whole of which is Slate Rock on the celebrated Bangor veins. The Quarries thereon have been extensively worked for many years, and have realised large profits. The Machinery and Plant which are in complete order and regular course of working, consist of two Steam Engines, one of which has been recently erected; four Water-wheels, with pumping and forcing apparatus connected therewith; Sawing Machine; two Lifting Frames for raising 500 tons a day each; two Waterbalances of vast power; four Inclined Planes, with Drums, Chains and Tramways complete; four Weighing Machines; Iron Pumps Pipes, Waggon; nearly two miles of Tramway; 28 Cottages; Workshops, Implements, and Machinery of every description necessary for carrying on a large trade.

The entire Estate is Slate Rock, the quality of which cannot be excelled, and the Quarries may be deemed practically inexhaustible. The Nantle Railway passes through the property, by which the Slates are now delivered at the Port of Carnarvon at 2s. 8½d per ton; but by a projected railway from the Quarries to the sea, the cost of transit will be reduced at least one-half, while, at the same time, facilities will be afforded for the removal of all the waste Rock, the effect of which upon the future working of the Quarries will be extremely beneficial, and largely enhance the permanent value of the property.

The celebrated Quarries of Colonel Pennant, and the late Mr. Assheton Smith, on the same veins of Slate, are said to realize profits amounting to upwards of £100,000 and £60,000 per annum respectively; and the Cilgwyn and Dorothea Quarries, contiguous to Talysarn, are now yielding very large profits, although paying a heavy royalty of 3s. per ton, from which these Quarries, being freehold, are exempt. The £25 Shares in the Dorothea Quarry are now saleable at £300 each.

Reports from Agents of Colonel Pennant's and the Bangor Quarries, together with estimates appended hereto, show, with a small expenditure of capital, a profit within two years of upwards of £10,000 per annum, or 20 per cent. The Capital of the Company is £50,000, of which £10,000 will be considered the working capital; but there is no probability, as will be seen by the Reports annexed, that more than one half that amount will ever be required, as the profits, even in the first year will be considerable.

The Freehold of the entire Estate, with all the Quarries thereon, and the Plant and Machinery, have been conveyed to the Company for £40,000, half of which the Proprietor takes in paid-up Shares; a further sum of £15,000 remains on mortgage, and £5,000 only is to be paid in cash. The Proprietor reserves to himself the house and premises now occupied by him, on a lease for 21 years, at a nominal rent.

The Accounts will be audited every month, and the Balance-sheet can be seen at the Offices of the Company by any of the Shareholders.

GENTLEMEN,

Having been requested by you to examine and report upon this property, I beg to remark, that from a careful survey of Talysarn Quarry, coupled with my knowledge of the same for several years past, I have no hesitation in stating that, if worked properly, this Quarry must be one of the best throughout North Wales, both with regard to the character of the Slate, and also to its quantity; its resources in the latter respect being literally inexhaustible. As to the character and quality of the Slate, it is sufficient to remark that the veins are the same as those of the Dinorwic and Penrhyn Quarries, with the addition also of the Cilgwyn vein, of which there is a large quantity; and this vein is admitted to be the best throughout the Principality, and traverses the entire estate; but has only been worked at the east end of the large Quarry, and at Bigg's Quarry; which latter Quarry bids fair to be one of the most productive in North Wales. It merely now requires the Dyke being removed, and the tops cleared, which can be effected at a cost of from £400 or £500. Beyond the Dyke, the vein (Cilgwyn) can be seen at the surface for about eighty yards in breadth without break, and extending 150 to 200 yards in length. By a judicious and gradual outlay of about £3,000 in clearing the large Quarry, and that known as Onens, and laying open Bigg's Quarry, I am of opinion that, in the second year of working, a clear net income of £10,000 may be realized. I am quite satisfied that for every 800 tons of Slates manufactured here, 1,200 tons could be procured from Talysarn in the same time, and the latter should be the average monthly yield at the least; and as the cost of making Slates at Talysarn is considerably less than at most of the Quarries, the net profit per month upon a yield of this kind may be fairly taken at £1,200, or £1 per ton.

I consider Talysarn to be equal in value to any other Quarry in Wales.

(Signed) THOMAS COLLIVER,

ROYAL QUARRIES, BANGOR.

DESCRIPTION OF THE QUARRIES.

RUNDELL'S GALLERY is situated on the west of the other workings and near the north boundary of the Slate range, is about 170 yards long, and from 50 to 70 yards wide, 33 yards deep to the present line of working, 20 yards to the second floor, and 12 yards to the bottom; total depth 65 yards.

The workings are bounded on the north by a large and massive dyke, which must be removed, and this and Onen's Quarry worked as one by a series of galleries, which must be continued to the mountain. When these Quarries are amalgamated, there cannot be a doubt but that the supply of Slates will be very large. The immense quantity of superior rock which can now be seen in Onen's deep level will be laid open; a large quantity of the top rock can be removed by the Water Balance. In this Quarry, when cleared, 60 Bargains can be set at work, viz.--First floor 35, second ditto 15, bottoms 10, producing 1,200 tons of Slate per month.

The time for clearing the Quarry cannot be estimated at less than from one year and nine months to two years, unless extra force is applied in the summer season; then it can be accomplished in eighteen months.

ONEN'S QUARRY is situated to the north-east of Rundell's, and on the extreme north boundary of the Slate Rock. Originally this was worked as three distinct Quarries, but now as one; there is a sink in the bottom of the Quarry eleven yards deeper than the Water Balance level, which has produced superior quality Slates, but I would not recommend anything being done in it until there is a communication from Rundell's Gallery, either by level or otherwise, to discharge the blocks and water. At present all blocks and waste from this Quarry are lifted by the Water Balance. There is a quantity of rubbish now lying in this Quarry which must be removed at a cost of £150. The Slate Rock rises in floors from the bottom to the Bargains now at work. In this Quarry, when clear, 15 Bargains can be worked, producing about 250 tons of Slate per month.

BIGG'S QUARRY is situated upon one of the central veins, known as the "Cligwyn Vein," or "Vein Goch," and produces Slate far superior to any other vein in the vale, is about 50 yards long, and varying from 15 to 20 yards wide, and worked to the depth of about 12 yards below the tramway, consequently the water and blocks have to be removed by machinery. The galleries must be carried on in succession. A Steam Engine has been erected for working the bottoms, until a deep level is driven to discharge the blocks and water. By untopping and extending the lower workings, in two years 400 to 500 tons of superior Slate can be made per month. The Slate Rock is to be seen about 80 yards to the north of the Dyke, cropping out at surface, and from appearance there cannot be a doubt as to its maintaining its quality.

TON SLATE QUARRY is situated about 60 yards to the north of Bigg's Quarry and could in the course of time be worked as one. A large supply of Tons and Tally Slates can be manufactured at this Quarry when fairly opened. The present working is about 40 yards long, from 25 to 30 wide, and 20 yards deep, at the east end; by untopping and forming a new gallery, and bringing in a new level, in two years 300 tons of slate per month could be made, beside a large quantity of Slabs, which at a greater depth might be manufactured into a first-rate article.

THERE ARE SEVERAL OTHER QUARRIES ON THE ESTATE, some of them of great promise, but what I have enumerated will be sufficient for many years, and in three or four years will be found to produce at least 20,000 Tons of Slate annually; the profit on the Talysarn Slate I estimate from a careful calculation at £1 per ton.

THE MACHINERY AND PLANT consist of two Steam Engines and Driving Gear; three Water Wheels for pumping; one ditto for forcing; working four Pumps; two Water Balances, one of great power, equal, if not superior, to any other in Wales; about 620 yards of Pumps, Plungers, Working Barrels, Door-pieces, and Wind-bores, about 50 tons weight, about 2,650 yards of Railway Iron and Tramways, about 36 tons; about 40 Slate and Rubbish Waggons; four Weighing Machines; four Inclined Planes, Drums, and Chains; and a variety of other articles requisite for an extensive Quarry.

WITH AN OUTLAY OF £3,000 the cost can be paid the first year, and a profit of £2,000 made, but on the second year's working, with judicious management, a profit of £10,000 can be made, and continue to increase in proportion to the returns.

The following Estimate of Returns is based on £3,000 being spent in clearing and laying open the Quarries. The cost is for Slate making, and the usual expenses attending a Quarry when in good working order.

I have averaged the produce of the Bargains the 1st six months at 16 tons each, for the 2nd six months at 18 tons each, and for the 2nd year at 20 tons each.

The foregoing Estimates have been carefully made, and may be relied on; the profits at the end of the second year may be calculated at £1 per ton on the produce. At that period the Quarry is expected to be brought into good working condition; the dead charges will not increase then in proportion to the returns.

I am, GENTLEMAN,

Your obedient Servant,

(Signed) THOMAS COLLIVER.

ROYAL QUARRIES, BANGOR,
December 21st, 1858.

I am the Manager of Penrorsedd Quarry, belonging to Messrs. JONES & COMPANY, who are the owners also of the Dorothea Quarry. I have resided in the immediate vicinity of Talsarn since my birth, and have been acquainted with the Quarry for 35 years past, and worked a portion of the Quarry with my father on our own account some years back very profitably. The estate consists entirely of workable Slate Rock, with the exception of the Dyke; and the quality of the rock is equal to that found in the most valuable Quarries in Wales. I am also of opinion, in common with the managers and proprietors of the neighbouring Quarries, that by the introduction of some Capital into the working, Talsarn would shortly become a very lucrative undertaking. In one part alone, called the New Quarry, or Bigg's Quarry, I feel persuaded that the outlay of about £1,000 would speedily produce a return of at least £20,000.

December 17th, 1858.

(Signed) ROBERT WILLIAMS.

Captain GEORGE TWIGGE, an Agent of Colonel PENNANT, writes respecting Talsarn:—

"The Talsarn Quarries are, in my opinion, far superior to any in that neighbourhood, and I think but few Quarries in North Wales, except the two or three very large ones, would pay better. There can be no doubt on the matter, but it is the same vein as Penrhyn and Lanberis Quarries. I have always thought so, and I may say I have had near twenty years' experience. The Slate is of excellent quality, and an unlimited quantity of it. The engine and all Apparatus are erected on the Slate Rock, consequently there would be a very large quantity of Slate taken out at a small outlay. Slates can now be made regularly from the New Quarry; and if a shaft be sunk twenty yards deeper than the present bottoms of the old Quarry, it would liberate the Quarry for twenty years, and would be a regular paying concern.

"To sink the shaft, clear the rubbish, and do all other necessary work; would cost from £4,000 to £5,000; the expense of doing it is nothing to be compared to the income it would produce. If this work be completed it would be a most valuable concern.

"PENRHYN QUARRIES,
"SEPT. 23rd, 1859."

(Signed) GEORGE TWIGGE.

A Report of the Talysarn Slate Quarries, by Mr. William Jones of the firm of Jones Brothers, of Wharf-road, City-road, Pimlico, on an inspection made by him during the month of October, 1859.

---

ENAMELLED SLATE AND MARBLE WORKS,

13, WHARF ROAD, CITY ROAD, AND AT PIMLICO,

London, October 21st, 1859.

DEAR SIR,

After a careful inspection of the Talysarn Quarries, I am of opinion that with a capital of, say £10,000, under proper management, the said Quarries would become a very profitable and safe investment the extent of the Slate Rock belonging to the estate being larger than any other in that neighbourhood, and the quality superior to most and inferior to none of the far-famed Carnarvonshire slate veins.

The Rock has been sufficiently tested, both as to quality and extent, so that with me the question reduces itself into one of capital and management. Then, as regards capital, the present Company has a very great advantage, seeing that they will literally reap the benefit of former capitalists' outlay; and as regards management, it ought certainly to be in the hands of a person practically acquainted with the working of slate veins.

I form these opinions after a life-long experience, formerly in the practical capacity of a Quarryman, and now for many years as a slate merchant in London.

If the Directors, as a body, or any one of them, wish to consult me in reference to the above Quarries, I am always at their service.

THOS. INGLEDEW, Esq.,
Secretary Talysarn Company.

Yours, very truly,
WILLIAM JONES.
